VISION FOR CHILDREN

Covid-19 Update

The Vision Beyond Borders children's homes have been under quarantine for many weeks now. Each home has their challenges as they learn to cope with the change in routine. Many are finding it is a time to concentrate on tasks that they normally would not have time for during a school year. Praise God that He allows growth during times of uncertainty and change. A few of our children's homes share how they are learning to adapt to being under quarantine for the safety of those in their homes and community.

ESTHER'S HOME-NEPAL

"In such a dark situation of the world we are hopeful in God's faithfulness. We and the children are doing good. We are in lockdown. They spend their time by playing and studying. They are waiting eagerly to start school as they will be going to the new grades soon."

HOPE DEVELOPMENT CENTER-BURMA

"We are all fine by your prayer. While in lockdown we are taking extra time in God's Word each day. One day there was an altar call to accept Christ. Eight children received the Lord that day! On Easter Sunday they were baptized. We ask for prayer for the spiritual growth of these children and for more to come to Christ."

WINNER EDUCARE CENTER-BURMA

"All the children from Winner are fine by His grace. They are locked down at home because there is one positive case in their quarter. Thankfully, all the children are fine. Every day they have morning Bible lessons and in the afternoon are the study hours. During this time they have learned almost twice what they normally would. We thank you for your prayer and support!"

ASHA HOMES-NEPAL

"Nepal is getting worse day by day. The infected cases are increasing. There is serious pressure given to the public to lockdown. Despite that, God has been doing great work. All our children are having leisure time so we are giving more emphasis on Bible study. All the kids are busy playing indoor games and we make different Nepali foods like dumplings. We are praying that the situation gets better soon."

Jesus said, "Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these."
