GIVE THE GIFT OF THE GOSPEL

We live in profoundly confusing and chaotic times. Communism murdered millions in the 20th century, yet the evil ideology remained entrenched in the largest country in the world by population (China). Killing innocent children in the womb is heralded as ‘freedom,’ and medical procedures to change one’s gender is justified and seen as a path to self-fulfillment. Yet worldwide, people are losing confidence in their governments, religions, and the media. Their media and religion have lied to them. They are now seeking, searching, and asking life’s big questions. We know the answer is Jesus Christ: His Word, power, and presence alone change hearts and communities.

Our brothers and sisters in Central and South America have experienced both the tumult of this age and the power of the Gospel. We have seen people in Mexico, Costa Rica, El Salvador, Paraguay, Colombia, Nicaragua, Honduras, Venezuela, and Panama grateful to receive God’s Word. Students in Honduras in public schools hear the Word of God daily as they read their Bibles and memorize scripture. Prisoners in Venezuela are given the hope of Jesus Christ. Those addicted to drugs and alcohol are given hope that only Jesus can provide. Police officers, Parliament members, and poor villagers are equipped with the truth. While in Colombia, I was able to share about those suffering for their faith around the world and how they stand strong by God’s provision amid these storms.

The Colombian people were deeply grateful to hear these testimonies while receiving 77,000 Spanish Bibles.

TESTIMONY

Pat Klein recently had an opportunity to speak at a private Christian school in West Virginia. The stories so moved the students from the Spanish Bible project that they raised over $2700. With their generous gift, 900 Bibles were distributed to those who long to read the Word of God.

Amid political corruption and social upheavals, Latin America is hungry for God’s Word. People are receiving the Word of God in their own language and turning to faith in Jesus. We are committed to printing and then distributing 1,000,000 Spanish Bibles throughout Latin America, free of charge. The impact is eternal as people turn to faith in Jesus Christ and find peace and comfort in the Word of God. The cost for us is $3.10 per Bible. Partner with us as we put God’s Word physically into the hands of people! Please pray about giving and consider sharing this need with your home church, youth group, Sunday school class, friends, and neighbors. We are praying that for every Bible distributed, 10 people will come to faith in Jesus Christ!

God Bless you!
