In the dark and often forgotten corners of El Salvador's prisons, a quiet hunger is growing—a hunger not just for food or freedom, but for truth, hope, and healing.

Thanks to our faithful supporters and a strategic partnership with one of our contacts on the ground, we are sending Spanish Bibles into these prisons. These Bibles will be placed into the hands of men who are incarcerated for gang and cartel-related crimes, many of whom are facing years of isolation, regret, and despair.

But God is moving.

One of our trusted contacts is working directly with an academy that trains leaders to enter the prisons—not only as professionals, but as Gospel witnesses. These individuals are equipped to run Bible studies, share the hope of salvation, and disciple men serving short-term sentences or those who have committed lesser crimes. Through these efforts, inmates are being introduced to the life-transforming message of Jesus Christ.

We are praying that these Bibles will not just sit on shelves, but will open hearts. We are praying for repentance, salvation, and the transformation of lives that have been steeped in violence and brokenness.

The Academy trains people to work in the prisons and share the Gospel.

Will you pray with us?

- Pray for every man who will receive a Bible—that they would be convicted by the Word and come to know the forgiveness and freedom found in Christ.
- Pray for those entering the prisons to share the Gospel, that they would be protected, equipped, and led by the Spirit.
- Pray for revival behind bars—because no one is beyond the reach of God’s grace.

Testimony from Venezuela: A Door Opened Behind Bars

Meanwhile, in Venezuela, another door has opened. One of our current Bible projects successfully delivered its first shipment of Spanish Bibles to a prison there—an incredible breakthrough. These Bibles are now in the hands of those hungry for hope, healing, and a fresh start.

These two prison outreaches are part of a growing movement of the Gospel across Latin America’s most overlooked places.

Want to do more?

Every Spanish Bible costs just $3.00 to print. Your gift can help us send even more Bibles into these prisons and beyond.

Thank you for standing with us as we carry the Word of God into even the darkest places. Jesus came to set the captives free—spiritually, emotionally, and eternally.
